Tecumseh United Football Club AODA Policy

The Accessibility for Ontarian's with Disabilities Act (AODA) is a legislation in Ontario, Canada, aimed at making the province accessible for people with disabilities by 2025. The AODA outlines standards for accessibility in various sectors, including customer service, transportation, employment, information, and communication, and built environments.

Tecumseh United Football Club is committed to eliminating barriers and providing accessible programs, services, and facilities towards achieving the club's vision that soccer should be fun, fair and accessible to everyone regardless of age, gender or ability. This includes building an inclusive community where all individuals have equal access to the club's services, programs and facilities in a manner that is integrated and promotes dignity and independence.

Tecumseh United Football Club adheres to the Accessibility for Ontarian's with Disabilities Act (AODA) Policy, as published by the Government.
